Ed Bluejacket was arrested this morning on a charge of disposing of mortgaged property on a warrant sworn out by Warren & Lewis. He gave bond for his appearance before the commissioner.

George and Ernest Calvert yesterday served one day in jail. They beat up a neighbor near Adair who they claimed had persistently trespassed on their property, and were sentenced to one day in jail, $50 fine and costs. They say it was worth it.

J. S. McDonald was in this afternoon from Bluejacket. He shipped seven Poland-China pigs to George W. Fields of Southwest City today, and one bird gift to S. A. Sippy of Neodesha, Mo. He said some thoroughbred pigs to Mearns Dupree and Bailey of this place.

After luncheon yesterday Senator Long was taken driving about the town by George Finley. The senator was exceedingly interested in Vinita, and insisted on examining personally the different points of interest. He complimented the city most highly for the progress it has made in spite of the adverse conditions against which it had to contend.

The statement of the Cherokee National bank, published in this issue, shows that the institution is maintaining the pace it has set ever since its establishment. One of the youngest banks of the town, the Cherokee is already one of the strongest. It has always been popularly managed, and the number of its depositors is therefore large.

On Tuesday night at the Baptist church E. B. Davidson will organize an old-fashioned singing class, the purpose of which will be to ground the members thoroughly in the fundamentals of music, and teach them to sing by note. All members of the church and congregation, and all others who desire to do so, of whatever age, are invited to join the class.
